

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTION TO THE APPLICANTS:

1. The last date for submission of online application for admission to PG Courses till 10th of July' 2018 for open seats.
2. Generally, for the purpose of Admission to PG Courses, as practiced, the applicants passed out their UG Honours/ Major Courses during last three academic sessions will be preferred. The order of preference will be on the basis of the candidate who passed last. However, no deduction of marks will be made while preparing the merit list.
3. In cases, if any seat remains vacant, then the applicants who passed earlier may be considered for admission on the basis of the recommendation of the PG Admission Committee on a case to case basis and with the approval by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor. However, the order of preference will be on the basis of the applicant who passed last.
4. The students of the Bridge Course in Sericulture only from the Department of Sericulture, may be considered eligible to apply for MSc. Course in Sericulture. However, they are required to write the Entrance Examination to be conducted by the RGU and they are required to produce the Passed Marksheet on or before 31st August, 2018.
5. The name of the applicants who have applied for Day Shift Course but couldn't qualify for the same, his name will automatically be under the consideration for the Evening Shift Course if the University is offering the same course in the evening shift. However, the applicants are allowed to apply for the same separately.
6. Commencement of PG Classes: 30th July, 2018.

Sd/

Secretary, PG Council

Raiganj University